Thanks Mr. Sultan.

I will pass along below information and get your team in the vessel status emails.

Clarification on sampling...is it required that soybean meal and sunflower seeds are sampled?

Thanks.
Mike

Good day Mr. Corbett,

Please see below for requested information:

- (1) We will require samples of the cracked corn, pearled wheat, and sunflower seeds. We won't be examining the soybean meal. Please see below for sampling instructions to be provided to OMIC:
  - a. A minimum of thirty (30) representative samples will need to be collected from each hold for each commodity being examined. Surveyors must have equipment that can reach to a depth of at least 24 feet into the hold.
  - b. Samples must be labeled with the following information:
    - i. Master Bill of Lading Number
    - ii. Location within hold sample was taken (e.g. NW area, 10' deep)
    - iii. Date sample taken
  - c. Samples must be delivered to BOBAC CES at 300 Ave. A, Alameda, CA 94501

The point of contact for the exam will be Agriculture Specialist DeJesus-Gaigalas.

You may receive follow up requests from our staff for vessel and vessel agent information.

Hi Mr. Chun,

Sorry for delay, travel day!

Thanks for getting back. A couple specific questions:

1. I know that organic cracked corn and organic pearled wheat must be sampled. However on the organic soybean meal, sometimes it's required and sometimes not. Then on the organic sunflower seeds, this is the first time we are bringing those in so didn't know if they needed to be sampled.
  - a. Please confirm which commodities must be sampled and I will advise OMIC accordingly who will be managing the process on the 26th at anchorage.
2. Next question is who in your group should we copy on the vessel agent email updates so you can track the incoming vessel?

Much Appreciated.
Mike

Good Morning,

I was coming up to N California tomorrow and was hoping you two may be free to drop in and go over everything in regards to the Asturcon.

Let me know if that works and what times are good.

Thanks!
Mike
